

IN THE US DISTRICT COURT IN THE STATE OF DELAWARE

Christina Paoli
Plaintiff

C.A. No 06-462

v.

The State of Delaware and
Delaware Technical and Community College
Defendants

Response to Defendant's Objections to Plaintiff's Request for Stay

1. Attached is additional medical information for Your Honor to review. It appears the opposing attorney does not believe that I can not respond to interrogatories at this time. He wrote "There does not appear to be a legitimate basis to delay this litigation any longer and certainly no basis for Plaintiff not to respond to the Discovery when due." I was not aware that the attorney had a medical degree or the expertise to override what my medical doctors have written.
2. Furthermore, attached is proof that there has been problems with the mail delivery in Rehoboth, in the past and the present. Mr. Casarino wrote " In Paoli v Dimatteo, Plaintiff also claimed to have some problems with mail delivery" That wasn't a claim, it was a fact. A notarized letter from the mail courier is attached.
3. The fact that Mr. Casarino included 8 previous cases from as far back as 1988 does NOT seem relevant. What was he trying to do, use this to attempt to influence the judge? I certainly don't have the knowledge or expertise of any attorney. I haven't been to law school or even taken a bar exam. It's like comparing apples to oranges, in my opinion.

Plaintiff reiterates her request, with additional doctor verification, to stay these proceedings.

Respectfully submitted,

Christina Paoli

To Whom It May Concern,

This notarized letter verifies the fact that there were two houses right across the street from each other with the same exact address for over a year. There was a lot of confusion with the mail delivery due to Sussex County, more specifically 911, changing the address of the houses on Loganberry Court as other places.

The address of 101 Loganberry Court was eventually changed to 102 Loganberry Court.

To further add to the confusion, there is a 101 Loganberry Lane as well as 102 Loganberry Lane one block away from the Loganberry Court address

I have been the mail courier there for

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I HAD A CONVERSATION WITH THE MAIL CARRIER FOR TRUVALE ACRES (600 3RD ST) CONCERNING DISPLACED MAIL FOR CHRISTINA PAOL. IN THIS CONVERSATION SHE OFFERED LITTLE HELP WITH THIS MATTER AND SAID "THIS HAS HAPPENED BEFORE" I CAN VERIFY THAT THERE HAVE BEEN MANY LOST PIECES OF MAIL BECAUSE I HAVE BEEN LIVING THERE FOR THE LAST 9 MONTHES.
